To whom it may concern

Miss Anna Lewandowska have been translating and interpreting for the Department of Microeconomic at the University of Szczecin for 3,5 years.

She translated a large number of articles and conference materials for our Department including: texts on mobility, labour market competitiveness, unemployment, HR management, Polish economy competitiveness, flexible employment forms, market segmentation which were published in "Economics and Competition Policy" as well as applications for EU grants.

Anna acted on our behalf as Interpreter at the International LAMA Workshops and Economics Challenge of XXI century. Poland-European Union- World and at the negotiations with our international partners concerning the EU project called LAMA. She was always willing to assist and was found to be an invaluable asset in the negotiations displaying a pleasant attitude.

Having worked with him for 3.5 years I would have no hesitation in recommending her to any company seeking her services as a translator and interpreter.

Yours faithfully, Tomasz Bernat, Ph.D. Department of Microeconomics University of Szczecin Poland
